The diagram illustrates a website layout for a vet-friendly employer. It features a central content area with a mission statement, an EEO statement, and a hiring notice. The mission statement reads: "Serve the public in partnership with our community, to protect life and property, prevent crime, respect human rights and resolve problems. We will ensure the peace and safety of all citizens by upholding the constitution of the United States and state of Florida." Below this is a hiring notice: "We are hiring various positions, and we encourage applicants to apply." The EEO statement reads: "The Osceola County Sheriff's Office is an equal opportunity employer. It is the goal of the Osceola Sheriff's Office to employ the most qualified and dependable personnel to work in the law enforcement field. If you have any questions concerning the process, please contact our office at (407) 344-5240. Veterans' preference per Florida law. In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, persons with disabilities needing special accommodation to participate in this proceeding should contact the Osceola County Sheriff's Office at: Osceola County Sheriff's Office 2601 E. Irlo Bronson Memorial Highway Kissimmee, FL 34744 (407) 344-5240". To the right of the hiring notice are two buttons: "View Jobs" and "LinkedIn". Dashed lines connect these elements to labels: "YOUR COMPANY'S MISSION STATEMENT" points to the mission statement, "YOUR COMPANY'S EEO STATEMENT" points to the EEO statement, "HYPERLINK TO YOUR COMPANY'S JOB BOARD" points to the "View Jobs" button, and "HYPERLINK TO YOU COMPANY'S LINKEDIN PROFILE PAGE" points to the "LinkedIn" button.
